Case No. 24-cv-01390-PHK

ORDER OF TRANSFER

13
14 On March 7, 2024, Plaintiff, an inmate housed at Salinas Valley State Prison (“SVSP”), 15 filed this pro se civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. In his Complaint, Plaintiff 16 alleges that he has not received mail that the United States Postal Service reports was delivered to 17 High Desert State Prison on May 22, 2023. [Dkt. 2 at 2-3]. The Complaint names as defendants 18 High Desert State Prison correctional officers identified by names as “Masters” and “M. Harrod”.
19 Id. at 1-2. For the reasons discussed herein regarding improper venue, the Court ORDERS that 20 this action be transferred to the Eastern District of California.

21 Under applicable legal standards, venue generally is proper in a judicial district in which:
22 (1) any defendant resides, if all defendants are residents of the state in which the district is located;
23 (2) a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or a substantial 24 part of property that is the subject of the action is situated; or (3) any defendant is subject to the 25 court’s personal jurisdiction, if there is no district in which the action may otherwise be brought.
26 28 U.S.C. § 1331(b).

27 The events or omissions giving rise to Plaintiff’s claims, as alleged in the Complaint, all 28 occurred at High Desert State Prison. See generally Dkt. 1. The Court therefore finds that (other

1 than Plaintiff himself, who is located in Soledad, California) the majority (if not all) of evidence 2 and witnesses are or would be located in or near High Desert State Prison.

3 Courts have the authority to take Judicial Notice of certain facts under the proper 4 circumstances. See Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2) (“The court may judicially notice a fact that is not subject 5 to reasonable dispute because it . . . can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose 6 accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.”); Minor v. FedEx Office & Print Servs., 78 F. Supp. 3d
7 1021, 1028 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (taking Judicial Notice of record of administrative agencies and publicly 8 accessible websites).

9 The Court takes judicial notice of the fact that High Desert Prison is located in Susanville, 10 California. See <https://www.cdr.ca.gov/facility-locator/hdsp/>. The Court takes judicial notice of 11 the fact that Susanville is the county seat of, and thus located in, Lassen County, California. See 12 <https://www.counties.org/county-profile/lassen-county>. Lassen County lies within the venue of 13 the Eastern District of California. See 28 U.S.C. § 84(b). The Complaint does not allege that any 14 Defendants reside in the judicial district of this Court (the Northern District of California). The 15 Court takes judicial notice of the fact that it is over 150 miles from Susanville, California to the 16 border of Humboldt County, California (the closest county which is within the Northern District of 17 California, see 28 U.S.C. § 84(b)). Accordingly, the Court finds that there is no reasonable basis 18 to believe that any Defendants reside in the Northern District of California and, to the contrary, the 19 Court finds that the named Defendants presumably reside in Lassen County (or at a minimum 20 some location near High Desert State Prison where they work, within the Eastern District of 21 California).

22 In light of the allegations in the Complaint, the Court concludes that no Defendants reside 23 in the Northern District of California and that none (much less a substantial part) of the events or 24 omissions giving rise to the claims asserted in the Complaint occurred in the Northern District of 25 California. 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b). Rather, the Court concludes that all Defendants reside in the 26 Eastern District of California and that all (or, at least, a substantial part) of the events or omissions 27 giving rise to the claims asserted in the Complaint occurred in the Eastern District of California.
28 Therefore, the Court finds that venue for this action is improper in this judicial district and instead

1 that venue for this action properly lies in the Eastern District of California. The Court further 2 finds that this action might have been brought in the Eastern District of California.

3 Accordingly, pursuant to the analysis herein under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 and pursuant to 28
4 U.S.C. § 1406(a) and further in the interests of justice (and further pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
5 § 1404(a), for the convenience of the parties and witnesses (the majority of whom are in the 6 Eastern District of California), and in the interests of justice and because this action might have 7 been brought in the Eastern District of California), the Court ORDERS that this action be 8 TRANSFERRED to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California.¹ Upon 9 transfer, the Clerk is directed to close this case.

10 IT IS SO ORDERED.

23 ¹ The Court's transfer of this action for lack of venue is non-dispositive and therefore within a 24 Magistrate Judge's authority. In a different context, the Ninth Circuit has held that a ruling that 25 does "not dispose of any claims or defenses and [does] not effectively deny [the plaintiff] any 26 ultimate relief sought" is non-dispositive and properly within a Magistrate Judge's authority
27 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A). See S.E.C. v. CMKM Diamonds, Inc., 729 F.3d 1248, 1260
28 (9th Cir. 2013) (motion to stay). A transfer of venue does not address the merits of the parties' claims, dispose of any claims or defenses, or foreclose any relief sought; nor does the transfer terminate the case within the federal court system. Instead, the transfer order simply results in the action being transferred to another district court. Accordingly, a Magistrate Judge may transfer a case for improper venue. See, e.g., Gomes v. Mathis, No. CV 17-7022 SVW (SS), 2019 WL 11720210, at *1 n.2 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 5, 2019) (collecting cases); Gomes v. Silver State Mortg., No.
C 09-2340 RS, 2009 WL 10674100, at *2 (N.D. Cal. July 28, 2009); Paoa v. Marati, No. CIV. 07-00370JMSLEK, 2007 WL 4563938, at *2 (D. Haw. Dec. 28, 2007).
